1. Introduction:

In the modern communication technological era academic library such as Degree college libraries have been a great contribution and responsibility to support in education and learning process. Being academic institutions, all Degree colleges are applying and implementing Infrastructures of Information communication technology in their libraries according to users information needs. Advancement of ICT has dramatically changed worldwide library resources and services. The Degree college library contributes primarily to the teaching and learning process for faculty members and students and it has a responsibility to disseminate and communicate users with a collection of resources and services. Therefore, the Degree colleges need to strengthen their library resources and services according to users’ information needs and satisfaction levels. In today's rapidly changing information world, information needs of users are met through a plethora of sources. The library is obviously the source of power of knowledge in higher education and research, the use of library resources and services is a matter of concerns to faculty and students.

The successes of any modern library today have been based on users’ satisfaction. The library should know the information needs of their users and make changes according to the user’s information needs, otherwise the library will not achieve their mission. The mission of all academic libraries is to collect, to organize and to dissemination of information in order to users’ information needs. The assessment and evaluation of library users satisfaction is an authentic tool for measuring library performance. The present study attempts to investigate the various aspects on users’ satisfaction towards libraries resources and services, conducting such a study will help to determine future plans for the Degree college libraries authority and users in reshaping their library resources and services for providing users in a more effective manner.

6. Review of literature:

- S. Sujath (2015) User Satisfaction on Print and Electronic Information Resources in Kakatiya University Library, Warangal-A Case Study. This study have identified the frequency of visiting the library, amount of time spent, level of use of print and electronic information resources, level of satisfaction of print and electronic information resources, level of satisfaction of library facilities and services. one can conclude that the KU is ineffective in some of its service provisions. This takes urgent steps to rescue obsolescence through the application of ICTs in library and information services at KU library.

- Dr.Pooja (2014) User satisfaction about the library space, infrastructure facilities' study of central library, KMC, Mangalore. The paper points out that the user needs assessment and user satisfaction measurement instruments can positively act as management tools that can assist the Central Library in decision making, long term planning, budgeting, employee training and development in addition to being a mechanism for continually enhancing and improving the relationship between the Central Library and its users.

7. Objectives:

- To know the Resources in St.Cleart College Library.
➢ To find out the level of satisfaction on Library facilities.
➢ To find out the level of satisfaction on print and electronic information resources.
➢ To find out the level of satisfaction on library services.

8. Methodology:

The present study intends to describe the user satisfaction on print and electronic information resources in St.Cleart College Library. Hence the investigator has adopted survey method for data collection through questionnaire in a simple random sampling method and descriptive statistics has been used for the interpretation of the data.

Table 1: Status-wise distribution and response rate

</table>

Table 1. shows the status-wise distribution of respondents. It is observed that 150 questionnaires were distributed to the users out of which 20 were B.A. students, 40 were B.COM students and 30 were BBA Students, 25 were BCA Students and 35 faculty members. Among these 129 responded and it the response rate is 86%.

9. Data analysis and interpretation:

<td>62(48.06%)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DELNET Database</td>
<td>56(43.41%)</td>
<td>76(58.91%)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The data in Table 4 represents the level of use of electronic information resources. A total of five resources have been identified by respondents as can be seen in Table 4. It is observed that a majority of 95(73.64%) of respondents are using search engines followed by 80(62.01%) using social networking sites, (Facebook, Twitter, etc.), 78(60.46%) OPAC, 64(49.61%) N-LIST E-resources, and 56(43.41%) DELNET Database. This indicates that a majority using Search engines (e.g., Google, Yahoo, etc.) and the least are using DELNET Database. Hence, the authorities should take necessary steps for improving the use of N-LIST E-resources and DELNET Database.

</table>
Table-7 shows that majority 66(51.16)% of the respondents are satisfied with the library Circulations service, followed by 62(48.06)% by reference services, 58(44.96%) by OPAC service, 54(41.86%) by newspapers clipping service, and 42(32.55%) by bibliographical service and 38(29.45%) ILL service. It is observed that the ILL service is in a very poor condition. In this connection, there is also a need to take necessary steps to improve this service.

Table 8: Satisfaction of St. Cleart College Library facilities:

The user satisfaction is a most important factor for any library. It all depends on the identification of user needs and their fulfillment with utmost care. The received response is presented below table.

Table-8 reveals that majority 54(41.86%) of the respondents are satisfied with reading space and furniture, followed by 51(39.53%) by lighting and ventilation, 48(37.20)% by library timings, 36(27.90%) by drinking water and the least 28(21.70%) by toilets facilities. It is found in the response of the users that drinking water facility, and Toilet Facility are ranked last.

10. FINDINGS:
By analyzing the collected data the following findings are evolved.

- A majority 50(40.31%) of the respondents visit the library every day, followed by 34(26.35%) visiting once in a week.
- A large portion of 112(86.82%) respondents is following newspapers regularly at St.claret college library, while 92(71.31%) following textbooks.
- Almost all 95(73.64%) of respondents are using search engines for electronic information resources at St.claret college library, while 80(62.01%) are following social networking sites (Facebook, Twitter, etc.).
- A majority of 62(48.06%) of respondents are satisfied with text books on print information resources, followed by 54(41.86%) with newspapers.
- A large proportion of 69(53.48%) of the respondents is satisfied with search engines as electronic information resources, followed by 62(48.06%) with social networking sites.
- A majority 69(53.48%) of the respondents are satisfied with the library circulation services, followed by 62(48.06%) with the reference service.
- A majority 54.41.86%) of the respondents are satisfied with reading space and furniture at St.claret college library, followed by 51(39.53%) with lighting and ventilation.

11. Suggestions:

- User Awareness Programme/ Orientation Programme, to be organised by St.Claret College Library, for accessing N-LIST Services and DELNET Database e-resources services.
- Appropriate ICT Infrastructure with Internet Connectivity should be provided to the users, it should be further improved for providing better Services.
- The faculty and students should further improve their information searching skills to make better use of largely available electronic information resources.

12. Conclusion

To know user’s expectations, it is necessary to establish a communication channel and to have a regular discussion with the users. Involvement of users in the development plan of library Infrastructure and services would certainly improve the utilization of the library resources. The librarians are concerned with evaluating the effectiveness of the service quality in the competitive world and society’s investment in them. For the effective service delivery, it is important to know the expectations of the users from the library. For last few decades technological advancements have provided the libraries capacity not only to meet but also to exceed the user’s expectations. The technological applications in library, automation of the library functions, and invention of new technology based services offer some benefits to library users.
The St. claret college library is trying to provide its services to users with utmost care. Based on the analysis of the research data, their interpretation and discussion, one can conclude that the St. claret college library is ineffective in some of its service provisions. For improve of this services they have to organise User Awareness Programme/ Orientation Programme for their users.
